PART TWO

The God of Your Days

*The Lord knows the days of the upright,
And their inheritance shall be forever.*

Psalm 37:18

PASTOR BRYAN HUDSON, DMin

Psalm 37:18

*“The LORD knows the days of the upright,
And their inheritance shall be forever. They shall not be ashamed in the evil time, And in the days of famine they shall be satisfied.”*

Remember that Psalm 37 is not a “lament,” it is instruction on how to navigate during times when the wicked seem to prosper.

“The LORD knows the days of the upright”

- Cares for you.
- Overseeing you.
- Not missing details.

God sees our days over the entire span of life

- We think of days in terms of calendar, special events, conditions
- God sees days as seasons. including seasons of ease and seasons of hardship.

The Lord sees seasons because He is a generational God

“Their inheritance shall be forever.”

Long after we are gone and forgotten, God remembers our days and what those days produced in the Earth and in the lives of others.

“Their inheritance shall be forever”

- Inheritance is not only material things handed down to us
- Inheritance is also what we have from the Lord that we provide to others.
- God Himself as the ultimate inheritance

“Their inheritance shall be forever”

- Most of our ancestors did not have the material possessions that we have.
- Many had something much greater:
  - They had faith in God, integrity, talents, and the will to overcome and succeed.

“Their inheritance shall be forever”

Most importantly, what God gives endures beyond circumstances and even beyond this life.

*“They shall not be ashamed
in the evil time.”*

God preserves us in crisis.

Covid was an example of that. We survived because we paid attention to God and to the true science that God put in the Earth.

*“And in the days of famine
they shall be satisfied.”*

Famine is extreme scarcity

Amos 8:11, When I will send a famine throughout the land, not a famine of food or a thirst for water, but rather a famine of hearing the words of the Lord.

Nothing prevents God's provision for people who hear the words of the Lord.

God is faithful!
We can be faithful!
